

Sinclair's demand for its affiliates to preempt regular programming to show an anti-Kerry film discrediting his military service and activism under the guise of "news" and just prior to the election is not only a gross violation of journalistic ethics, but a disturbing example of corporate influence to further a political agenda. This does not serve me, my community, or democracy. I ask you to consider this feedback at license renewal time. Thank you.